

By the King.

A Proclamation declaring the Kings Maiesties Royall pleasure touching the Inhabitants of Algier, Tunis, Sallie, and Tituan, in the parts of Africa.

Hereas diuers Complaints haue of late come vnto Vs, from the Inhabitants of Algier, Tunis, Sallie, & Tituan, & the Countreys vnder the same gouernments, of diuers great Wrongs done vnto them at Sea, by some of Our Subiects, whiche, if it haue beeene done, is contrary to Our Royall intention, and without any warrant from Vs: wee taking this into Our princely consideration, and tending, as wel the good vsage of all those, with whom Our Subiects haue, or shall haue Commerce and Entercourse, as the good and safety of Our Subiects trading into those parts, by the Advice of Our princie Counsell, doe hereby publish and declare Our Royall pleasure, and doe straitly charge and command all Our louing Subiects, of what sort, qualitie or degree soever they be, whoni it may any wayes concerne, that they doe from henceforth forbeare all acts of Hostility, or to offer any violence, or ill vsage vnto any the persons Shippes, or goods belonging, or whiche shall belong to Algier, Tunis, Tituan, Sallie, or any other port or part of those Countreys which are vnder the same gouernment, as they will answere the contrary at their perils, and would annoyd Our high and heauie displeasure, and such paines and punishments, as by Our Lawes may bee imposed, or inflicted vpon them for their contempt, or neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at White-Hall, the two and twentieth day of October, in the fourth yeare of Our Reigne of Great Britaine, France, and Ireland.

God sauе the King.

Imprinted at London by Bonham Norton, and John Bill, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maestie.
ANNO M. D. C. XXVIII.